Our Commitment to Privacy

Your privacy is important to us. To better protect your privacy, we provide this notice explaining our online information practices.

The Information We Collect

This notice applies to all information collected or submitted on the Green Valley Democrats (GVD) website.

GVD does not store personal information about you on its website.

On some pages, you can order event tickets, make contributions, and register to receive materials. Third party applications (Constant Contact and ActBlue) manage these tasks and those applications have their own policies as to how this information is stored and used. Consult their websites for further information:

<https://www.constantcontact.com/legal/privacy-center>

<https://secure.actblue.com>)

To track website traffic, non-personal, anonymous information is collected including the number of visitors, aggregated by general geographic locations.

The way we Use Information

We use return email addresses to answer the email we receive. Such addresses are not used for any other purpose and are not shared with parties outside of GVD.

You can register through our website (<https://greenvalleydemocrats.org>) if you would like to become a member, receive updates, make a contribution, volunteer, or participate in an action. The information you submit on our website is not stored there but could be used to contact you through email, postal mail, and/or via phone call or text message. (See section above on The Information We Collect for information on third party applications.)

How to Contact Us

Should you have other questions or concerns about these privacy policies call us at 520-838-0590 or email us at greenvalleydemocrats@gmail.com.
